

I would hope that the FRA would draft a rule requiring that Dispatching of lines with in the United States would have to be located in the United States. With are on going terrorism threat and the Safety of rail operations I believe it would be a mistake to lose control of dispatching our Railroad lines with in the United States.